Message for the anniversary of the People's War in Nepal By COMMUNIST MAOIST PARTY - ITALY - Central Committee)

We salute on behalf of the proletariat and the popular masses, youth and women, militants and revolutionary and anti imperialist forces in our country, the 9th anniversary of the glorious beginning of the people's war in Nepal guided by the CPN(M), that following the Prachanda Path is applying Marxism-Leninism-Maoism to the concrete conditions of Nepal.

The beginning of revolutionary war in Nepal, 9 years ago, has drawn, from the Andean to Himalaya, the red thread of retaking the people's war indicated by Mao Tsetung as a universal path valid in each country for overthrowing the imperialist system and for the advent on a world scale of socialism and communism.

The people's war in Nepal has displayed to the world that on the legs of people's wars goes the achievement of Marxism-Leninism-Maoism and in particular of Maoism, and at the same time the achievement of the aggregation point of marxist-leninist-maoist parties and organizations of the world, that is the Revolutionary Internationalist Movement that has celebrated its 20th anniversary of its foundation.

The people's war in Nepal has shaken to its foundations not only the feudal regime of the Nepalese monarchy submitted to the imperialism, but the whole political and social contest of south Asia, triggering off and feeding the path of people's war in the whole area and the construction and development of Maoist, communist parties.

It's a heavy blow to imperialism that influences the world balance of forces between revolution and counterrevolution. Here is the striking affirmation that the principal contradiction in the world today is between imperialism and oppressed peoples, and that revolution is the main tendency in the world.

And it is not only a blow given to imperialism. But first of all it is a deadly blow to revisionism and opportunism that in different ways and with different arguments support the parliamentarian and peaceful path, which, as always, serves only to accompany and strengthen the power of imperialism and of the reactionary regimes on proletarians and peoples.

We salute the strategic offensive, opened by the great blockade of Kathmandu of august 2004, that puts on the agenda the conquest of power on a national scale, for the creation of a new democracy, the Nepalese peoples republic, marching towards socialism.

The strategic offensive of the people's war moves itself dialectically with the resistance of peoples, in particular in the area that today is the epicentre of world situation, the middle east, from Iraq to Palestine; and all together they demonstrate that it is not the imperialism that is on the offensive but, instead, the proletarians and the peoples.

In the very heart of imperialist countries, imperialism and its lackeys try to pass over in silence the advancing of the people's war in Nepal, so as they have already done, and continue, with the people's war in Peru and with every and each revolutionary struggle that marches on this path. They know very well that the revolutionary message coming from the peoples wars guided by Maoists serves and feeds the preparations and the beginning of peoples wars even in the very heart of the imperialist countries, first of all through the ideological and political nourishment that it gives to the constitution and construction of new Maoist, communist parties for peoples' war.

This process finds in the Communist Maoist Party in Italy its banner, and its point of reference and perspective.

To celebrate the 9th anniversary of the people's war in Nepal, to support it in all forms, it means first of all and principally to make people's war, make revolution in own country, focus attention and affirm the triumphant force of Maoism, uniting in the practice of revolution the two currents of the world proletarian revolution: the proletariat of the imperialist countries and the by imperialism oppressed peoples.

Revisionism and opportunism fight against this process, they work to divide and oppose the peoples wars, to separate authentic Maoist communist parties in both epicentres of revolution. Revisionism and opportunism, although if they hail solidarity to peoples' war, they does it to give a coating of Maoism to a line that negates the creative application in own country.

That march forward of the popular masses in Nepal, and within it, the enthusiastic advancing of the Nepalese women, is greeted in our country with different initiatives of proletarians, women, youth in person, who, there where our party is present, organize enthusiastic and struggling meetings, embodying the authentic spirit of proletarian internationalism, that is, the unity, the real embrace of proletarians and masses who are constructing, in the midst of struggles and peoples' war, a world without imperialism and exploitation, without wars and oppressions, a world of freedom and democracy of masses that embodies in a society that stays in the hands of the proletariat and in the communism.

The coup of the hated Nepalese king is only a sign of desperation, the attempt to invert the march of the history of Nepalese people and to call and accelerate the direct intervention of Yankee imperialism and Indian hegemonism. A desperate move that will accelerate its defeat. A call up to arms for the imperialism that throws back to itself because it appeals to mobilization and to support to the peoples' war the proletarians and the masses of the world.

That's what we do now, what we will do always more and to what we call parties and organizations of each orientation in our country and on a world scale.
