SCARED SCARE PAVES WAY TO RELIEF CUTS Sacramento Police Spy Repudiates Kidnap Lie In Court

I.L.D. BAILS OUT 5 MORE C. S. DEFENDANTS

"MY MEMORY IS NOT SO GOOD," SPY ADMITS AS GALLAGHER ATTACKS

BULLETIN
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 31.—The International Labor Defense, whose attorney, Leo Gallagher, is defending 16 of the 17 workers now on trial in Sacramento, announced here that five more defendants have been bailed out with bonds furnished by the I. L. D. The total number of defendants out on bail is ten.
Those bailed out today are Martin Wilson, secretary of the I. L. D. in Sacramento; Pat Chambers, organizer for the Cannery and Agricultural Workers Industrial Union; Nora Conklin, leader of unemployed struggles; Loreine Norman and Harry Collenz.

By Michael Quin.
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 30.—William Hanks, professional stool-pigeon, who posed as an unemployed worker in Sacramento for more than ten months, occupied the stand all day today under constant grilling by defense attorney Gallagher.

The prosecution's star witness in the raiding trial of the seventeen workers on charges of Criminal Syndicalism repudiated every detail of the reported death threat and kidnaping by Communists of which McAllister told the press last year.

The framework of a death threat story something along the lines of last year's hysterical lie was contended by Hanks, but all of the particulars were alleged and positive implication of Communists withdrawn.
McAllister refused to take the stand to explain the lies which newspapers stated last October were issued by him. He shouted constant denials from the side line supported by the sneering and sarcasm of his two aides, Johnson and Buchler.

So evasive was Hanks' testimony that literally hundreds of questions had to be asked by Gallagher in order to force definite statements.

PROTEST MEET FEB. 2 IN SAC'TO FIGHTS SYNDICALISM LAW

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 31.—A mass meeting for the repeal of the Criminal Syndicalism Act and in defense of the seventeen working men and women now on trial in Sacramento for Criminal Syndicalism will take place in this city on February 2, Saturday, at 8 p. m., at the Plaza Theatre, on Ninth Street.
Well known speakers and defendants who will address the meeting include Dr. George P. Hedley of the American Civil Liberties Union, Northern Committee. Other speakers will be Charles Bridgen, president of the Maintenance of Way Union; George Maurer of the International Labor Defense, Roy Sullivan, worker for the Epic Movement; Albert Hourgardy, Sacramento Section Organizer of the Communist Party and one of the seventeen defendants now on trial, and Caroline Decker, also a defendant now on trial for Criminal Syndicalism.

The novel feature of the meeting will be a skit called "VERY GRAND JURORS," to be presented by the Hollywood Theatre of Action. Leading roles in the skit will be played by High Gear, Miss Crawford, Mr. Gable, Mr. Montgomery, all of Hollywood and Los Angeles.
All workers are urged to attend.

Representing the bosses and not "the people of the State of California," these four are trying to railroad seventeen workers to the penitentiary for 54 years each. Red Hynes, second from right, infamous Red Squad head from Los Angeles who makes his living attacking the working class, helps McAllister, center, and McAllister's two assistants, Johnson and Buchler. McAllister was repudiated at the polls last November by the people of Sacramento. In rear can be seen (back of Hynes) Albert Hoggarty, Pat Chambers, Nora Conklin and Fred Kirkwood.

These Are NOT "The People!"

S. F. RALLY FEB. 3 TO FIGHT C. S. FRAME-UPS

SAN FRANCISCO, February 1.—The opening gun in the campaign for the freedom of the 18 Sacramento victims of the Criminal Syndicalism law will be fired here Sunday night, Feb. 3.
At 8 p. m. of that day, a Mass Protest Meeting will be held at Mission Turner Hall, 3541 Eighteenth Street (near Valencia), for the 18 workers and for the repeal of the vicious anti-labor law. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Conference for United Action, 1095 Market St.
The main speakers scheduled are Dr. George P. Hedley, Director of American Civil Liberties Union, George Maurer, of the International Labor Defense, Caroline Decker and Nora Conklin, two of the Sacramento defendants.

This meeting is important for it precedes by one week the holding of the United Front Conference at Carpenters' Hall, 112 Valencia St. Speakers will expose the real issues of the trial, and what class forces are at work behind the prosecution and defense.

I.L.D. Maps New Fight As Naff Is Taken to Prison

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 26.—Clay Naff, 31-year old Communist leader and militant worker, was taken to the Arizona State Prison at Florence yesterday to begin serving a one-to-two-year sentence on a framed charge of "rioting," in connection with strike activities last September 6th at the Federal Emergency Relief Administration headquarters here.
Naff, a native of Kentucky but an Arizona resident 14 years, nine of which he has spent in Maricopa county, was an auto mechanic with the FERA. He was candidate for governor in the recent elections.

For the past several years Clay Naff has taken an active part in working class struggles in the Salt River Valley, having taken the leadership in several agricultural strikes which resulted in increase for the workers in the fields.

Interviewed regarding the next steps that will be taken to free Naff from prison, Thomas J. Croaff, defense counsel, stated that within the next few days transcript of record would be completed.
The International Labor Defense, 16 South Second Avenue, Phoenix, is desperately in need of funds to carry through the defense work. Rush funds now.

DENNY MAKES FINAL APPEAL IN PORTLAND C. S. FRAME-UP TRIAL

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 1.—The case of Edward Denny has been placed in the hands of the jury.
Judge Stapleton, in instructing the jury, refused to include several points requested by the defense, carrying on his attitude of brazen indifference.
Denny, denied the right to demand by a committee of workers that he be given an additional 15 minutes to make his own final arguments to the jury, made a brief but dramatic plea based on the class struggle.

Portland, Oregon, Jan. 25.—Taking the witness stand in his own defense Edward Denny, on trial for Criminal Syndicalism in Judge Stapleton's court turned his testimony into a graphic indictment of Capitalism as he related in simple language the story of a highly skilled worker driven to the miserable existence of the soup-line and lopsided relief provided for jobless single men in Portland. Common's forced labor relief institutions. He joined the Communist Party in a desperate (Continued on Page 3, Col. 3.)

Browder Sends Condolence On Kuibyshev Death

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Earl Browder, general secretary of the Communist Party, U. S. A., has sent in the name of the Central Committee, the following telegram expressing sorrow at the death of Comrade Valerian Kuibyshev:
"Comrade Joseph Stalin, Moscow, USSR.
With profound feeling of loss we have learned of the untimely death of Valerian Kuibyshev. We deeply sorrow together with you in this great loss. It is our loss as well. We hope to help make good this loss by more strenuous efforts in our common cause."
(Signed) Earl Browder.
Comrade Kuibyshev was head of the State Planning Commission, a member of the Political Bureau of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, and vice-chairman of the All-Union Council of People's Commissars of the U. S. S. R.

SOVIET LEADER ASKS JAPANESE TO KEEP FAITH

MOSCOW, Jan. 31.—Vyacheslav Molotov, chairman of the Council of People's Commissars of the U. S. S. R., today added another point to the consistent peace policy of the Soviet Union when he proposed that the Japanese imperialists guarantee the sovereignty of China by withdrawing all their troops from the puppet state of Manchukuo.
The proposal was made in a speech by Molotov, delivered before the All-Union Congress of Soviets now meeting in Moscow. Molotov pointed out that Japan already has broken the treaty of Portsmouth made between Russia and Japan at the close of the 1905 war which provided for the demilitarization of the Russian-Korean and Sakhalin borders.

Meanwhile, Japanese troops continue to invade Outer Mongolia where they are reported to have seized the town of Harbin on the northeastern shore of Lake Baikal.
Yesterday Vice-Commissar of Defense Michael Tukachevsky told the All-Union Congress that the Soviet Union has by far the world's greatest trained army—940,000. He told the cheering delegates that the army had been increased to 940,000 men from less (Continued on Page 3, Col. 1.)

WORKERS' BILLS NOW IN HANDS OF COMMITTEES

SEEK IMMEDIATE ACTION ON ANTI-C. S. REPEAL, INSURANCE MEASURES

By A. S. Murray.
SACRAMENTO, Calif., Jan. 31.—Among the thousands of bills introduced to the California Legislature, there are two which demand immediate action on the part of the masses of workers of the state. They are:
Assembly Bill No. 791—The Workers State Unemployment Insurance Bill which calls for a minimum of $10 per week for each unemployed worker and $3 per week for each dependent, the money to be raised through a tax on the profits of the wealthy employers.

Assembly Bill No. 719 which calls for the complete and unconditional repeal of the vicious Criminal Syndicalism Law. This is the bill which is being used by the reactionary groups of California in their attempt to railroad seventeen militant workers to a lifetime in San Quentin.

Workers are called upon to rally to the support of these two bills. Bill No. 419 is in the hands of the Committee on Judiciary and a complete list of the names and addresses of these committees already has appeared in the Western Worker. Workers and organizations should flood these committees and those of the Committee on Insurance, which now has Bill No. 791, with thousands of letters and post cards, demanding these bills to be brought to the floor of the assembly. The committee men now are at their homes for the thirty-day legislative recess.

Governor Merriam is quoted in Thursday's Sacramento Union as being very pleased with the proposed bills presented to the House and the Senate prior to the present thirty-day recess. This tool of the bankers and industrialists is particularly pleased over those bills aimed at suppression of all militant workers and working class organizations. The legislature has proposed new tax levies which will be in addition to the $54 million dollar increase demanded by Merriam himself in his budget message, and that these huge levies will be raised through taxes drawn from the pockets of workers and farmers.

Jobless Plan To Force Action On Workers' Bill 791

BIG PICKET LINES OF L. A. FURRIERS KEEP SCABS OUT
CHICAGO RACKETEERS IMPORTED AS SCABS

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 31.—The seventh week of the strike finds the strikers of the A. Rubin Shop solid under the leadership of the Fur Workers Industrial Union. Picketing gates place every day. Last Monday the fur workers, aided by other workers and sympathizers, demonstrated in a mass picket line and kept the scabs out.

The shop is paralyzed through two racketeers who claim to be members of the A. F. of L. of the Chicago local, are there scabbing. Abe Rubin, the boss, unable to get Los Angeles workers to scab, brought racketeers from Chicago and, besides attempting to run the shop with these scabs, is making a desperate effort to break the Furriers Union, with the aid of a Chicago racketeer, Jack Machine. Rubin, with his racketeers, is now trying to organize a dual furriers local. But with no success! The fur workers, at their splendid mass meeting held last night, enthusiastically decided to defend their union and raise a fund to fight these racketeers.

Morris Ball, located at 635 So. Hill St. (Harris & Frank Bldg.) induced by Mr. Rubin, declared a lock-out against all the union workers in his shop. The union answered this with a mass picket line. All the scabbers of the shop responded and the scabs were taken down. As usual, the bosses are trying to protect themselves with the Red Squad, who are stationed at both shops—Rubin's Shop at 747 So. Hill St. (Jewellers' Buildings) and Ball's Shop at 635 So. Hill Street.

UNITED FRONT FOR SOCIAL INSURANCE VITAL ISSUE FOR ALL WORKERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—It is probable all state funds for relief purposes will be exhausted today. With criminal nonchalance, relief heads have declared "the state relief cupboard is nearly bare."

And on the heels of this announcement Paul Davis, local relief czar, today fired the initial gun in a drive to cut relief rolls to a bare minimum by announcing through the Hearst press that SERA projects are "honeycombed with Communism."

"I am determined," Davis continued, "to rid the relief organization of these agitators."
Alex Norval, chairman of the State Committee of Action For Unemployment Insurance under whose sponsorship the Workers Unemployment Insurance Bill 791 last week was introduced into the State Assembly, this morning declared:

* Drive to Slash Pay.
"Paul Davis and the Hearst press are cooperating in the launching of a drive to slash relief rolls and budgets by first attacking all militant workers who are inclined to fight for adequate relief."

San Francisco has been chosen as the spear-head in a criminal campaign to further lower the standards of living of the employed and unemployed workers. San Francisco workers have been in the forefront of the struggle for real unemployment insurance and scores of workers' organizations are lining up solidly behind the State Unemployment Congress to be held at Sacramento March 10 and 11.

All organizations are urged to hold the date of February 16 open for at that time the Committee of Fifteen, chosen at the preliminary united front conference here two weeks ago, is planning a monster fund-raising affair to raise money for the fight to force the Workers' Bill 791 out of committee. The struggle will come to a climax in the State Unemployed Congress March 10 and 11.

M. RAKOSI EXPOSES FRAME-UP COURTS IN BUDAPEST

BUDAPEST, Feb. 1.—Facing a court intent upon reroading him to jail after his release from nine years imprisonment, Matthias Rakosi, heroic Hungarian Communist leader, challenged the fascist Boembo government in no uncertain terms.

Speaking of the accusation that he advocated violence, Rakosi said, "This does not mean we advocate violence for its own sake or when its application is no longer necessary. And when I declare that in the seizure of power we use no more force than is necessary, let me emphasize that on your part—the part of the exploiters' dictatorship—the force and brutality have absolutely no limit when we present any serious opposition. It is sufficient to mention that even those who were not even radical enough to be pacifists were savagely shot by the Rumanian and Czechoslovakian troops."

The frame-up received a further setback when the Budapest chief of police, testifying for the prosecution, stated that only when urgently required was force called upon by the Soviet government of Hungary. At this, in great consternation, the court went into a huddle.
Rakosi's sister was arrested by the court for having said that she was "proud of my brother."

WALL ST. FASCIST DICTATORSHIP PLOT BARED

Dickstein Committee Hides Conspiracy. Proof: Covers Up Main Figures

By Marguerite Young
This expose, re-printed from the Daily Worker, Central Organ of the Communist Party, is one of the most important documents on the present scheming of Wall Street, as well as all other honest thinking people, to read. In clear-cut fashion Marguerite Young lays bare the reasons for the present anti-Communist attack of Hearst, the whitewashing Dickstein Committee, and the plot being prepared to set up a fascist dictatorship toward which aim the present Roosevelt government's maneuvering is preparation.
The expose will be in several installments. To make sure you do not miss any subscribe to the Western Worker NOW.—Ed.

Wall Street chiefs and their politicians are conspiring to clamp a fascist dictatorship on the American people.
The Dickstein-MacCormack Committee on Un-American Activities supposedly set up to investigate just such developments, has systematically suppressed evidence

Contact With White House.

Testimony suppressed by the Dickstein-MacCormack Committee shows that MacGuire established contact with the White House, through a former National Commander of the American Legion, at a time when MacGuire had approached Butler, but had not yet broached the private army business. The go-between, Louis Johnson, was on a "sound money" committee which MacGuire told Butler he organized. So was Frank N. DeGrano, present National Commander of the American Legion. DeGrano is a San Francisco banker linked with William Randolph Hearst and Amadeo Giannini, of the Bank of America. DeGrano was scheduled to testify before the Dickstein-MacCormack Committee—but never appeared—although he was in Washington the night before this, and had a private conference with President Roosevelt.

The suppressed testimony discloses that the Congressional Committee never questioned MacGuire about a statement that he or Robert Sterling Clark, Singer Sewing Machine heir, gave General Butler to understand that John W. Davis, chief lawyer of the House of Morgan, wrote a speech which Butler was asked to deliver at a Legion convention. The suppressed testimony includes the following statement which Butler recalled MacGuire made to the Marine General:

* Suppressed Testimony Revealed.

"He (MacGuire) said, 'You know the President is weak. He will come right along with us. He was born in this class. He will come back to us. He will run true to form. In the end he will come around. But we have got to be prepared to sustain him when he does.'
To summarize what is known about this fascist army plot, General Butler testified that MacGuire came to him in the summer of 1933 with overtures—MacGuire said his employer, Murphy, wanted the retired "Bluejackets" general to lead soldiers to a Legion convention. Later he asked Butler to make a speech on the money question. Finally it developed that he wanted to have Butler participate in a fascist coup, in which a "man on a white horse" would set up an outright dictatorship for the bankers and industrialists. MacGuire called "his class" "us." Other evidence now officially printed by the Congressional investigators proved that MacGuire during the period under discussion did handle vast sums of money, as much as $100,000 in one transaction, although he normally dealt in small sums. It proved that MacGuire did travel around the country during the time concerned, that he repeatedly contradicted himself and never did account for about $65,000 which he disposed of at a time when, he admitted, he wasn't selling bonds. Also, that MacGuire traveled all over Europe studying "veterans" movements in relation to the reigning fascists.

General Butler told me that at only one point did MacGuire produce a record in an effort to controvert the General's testimony.

* Fascist Forces Gather.

In this series I shall show that this Wall Street effort to have General Butler lead a fascist army, backed by $3,000,000 to start and $300,000,000 if needed, is but one spectacular product of the gathering forces of American Fascism. These forces, which will be shown in action, include representatives and associates of the Rockefeller, Morgans, Hearsts and Warburgs.

Abraham Lincoln Said:

"This country, with its institutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it. Whenever they shall grow weary of the existing government they can exercise their constitutional right of amending it, or their revolutionary right to dismember or overthrow it."

(Inaugural Address, March 4, 1861)

Lenin Said:

"... the dictatorship of the proletariat must inevitably bring with it, not only a change in the forms and institutions of democracy, speaking generally, but precisely such a change in them as shall bring a widening of the practical utilization of democracy by those oppressed by capitalism, by the labouring classes, as has never yet been seen in the whole world."

Abraham Lincoln Said:

"This country, with its institutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it. Whenever they shall grow weary of the existing government they can exercise their constitutional right of amending it, or their revolutionary right to dismember or overthrow it." (Inaugural Address, March 4, 1861)

Lenin Said:

"... the dictatorship of the proletariat must inevitably bring with it, not only a change in the forms and institutions of democracy, speaking generally, but precisely such a change in them as shall bring a widening of the practical utilization of democracy by those oppressed by capitalism, by the labouring classes, as has never yet been seen in the whole world." (At the First Congress of the Communist International, March 4, 1919)

Answer the Appeal of the 18 Prisoners. Build the Feb. 10 Conference. San Luis Obispo Workers Join In Insurance Fight

Thomas Jefferson Said:

"But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them (the people) under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security."

(From the Declaration of Independence.)

Lenin Said:

"The dictatorship of the proletariat, the period of transition to Communism, will for the first time produce democracy for the people, for the majority. Communism alone is capable of giving a really complete democracy."

Lenin's Collected Works, Vol. 21, page 220.

Lincoln Said:

"With its institutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it. We grow weary of the existing government they are entitled to amend it, or their revolutionary power to overthrow it."

(Inaugural Address, March 4, 1861)

Lenin Said:

"... the dictatorship of the proletariat must inevitably bring it, not only a change in the forms and institutions of democracy, speaking generally, but precisely such a change as shall bring a widening of the practical utilization of democracy by those oppressed by capitalism, by the labouring classes, as has never yet been seen in the whole world."

(At the First Congress of the Communist International, March 4, 1919)

Protest SERA Dismissals! The campaign against Communists by Paul H. Davis, San Francisco Relief Director, working through and with the local Hearst press, has been translated into action.

That the shiny hand of Hearst guided the whole maneuver is thoroughly exposed in today's Western Worker.

Workers on SERA jobs should realize the real significance of the drive against militant workers on the projects.

Vandeleur and Scharrenberg, Moguls of the State Federation of Labor, have issued a statement protesting against Merriam's tax program.

Why this belated awakening to the anti-working class character of Merriam's budget measure, delivered more than a month ago? It is possible that it took Messrs. Vandeleur and Scharrenberg more than thirty days of close study to arrive at the conclusion that the tax program would only the poor for the benefit of the rich?

Do they urge all A. F. of L. unions to unite with other working class organizations on the basis of a united front of struggle against the vicious tax program? Do they urge that mass demonstrations be held by A. F. of L. unions in all cities denouncing that the tax load be transferred to Big Business and wealthy individuals?

Do they urge that mass demonstrations be held by A. F. of L. unions in all cities denouncing that the tax load be transferred to Big Business and wealthy individuals?

Injunction Used Against Coal Strikers

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Feb. 15.—One of the most far-reaching injunctions handed in recent years has been issued against the strike of coal miners in New York. It was signed February 9 and bars all meetings, forums, any picketing or interference with any other business of the coal companies. It also forbids any of the officers of the Glen Allen Company, the miners' union, to fight the injunction and the strike in any way. The injunction is signed by the United States District Court at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and is the first of its kind in the history of the coal industry.

Thousands of California Workers

Are waiting to hear about the Western Worker! Thousands of Subscribers' Army Recruiting Squads Must Come to the Front on Red Saturday and Sunday Feb. 16, 17!

To Tell Them!

A Worker from Boyle Heights Sub-Section, Los Angeles, writes us: "I want to declare that we little realize what our Western Worker means to the masses of workers. I and another comrade from my unit went out into our new territory with Western Worker... We had the opportunity to talk to workers about their conditions. They bought our papers eagerly... those who could afford to, gave us subscriptions... We found an atmosphere of deep sympathy in workers' homes. When we were through for the day we were tired, but better Communists."

Put the Subscription Drive Over the Top Saturday and Sunday

Thomas Jefferson Said:

"But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them (the people) under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security."

Lenin Said:

"The dictatorship of the proletariat, the period of transition to Communism, will for the first time produce democracy for the people, for the majority. Communism alone is capable of giving a really complete democracy."

Members of the Socialist Party, Repudiate Your Bankrupt Leadership!

Members of the Socialist Party in California! Your State Convention, dominated by such “socialists” as Cameron King, has just rejected the united front offer made by the Communist Party for joint action on four issues vitally affecting the workers and small farmers of California.

Your State Convention, by this cynical action, has repudiated you!

Your state “leadership,” while still paying its verbal respects to the fight against the corrupt and decaying capitalist system, has again thrown the class struggle overboard by its action!

YOUR “LEADERS” HAVE ISOLATED YOU FROM THE CLASS STRUGGLE IN CALIFORNIA! THE CRYING NEED OF THE WORKERS AND SMALL FARMERS IN THIS STATE IS A UNITED FRONT OF STRUGGLE AGAINST THE CONCERTED ATTACK OF THE MOST REACTIONARY REGIME IN THE HISTORY OF THE STATE!

AS SINCERE WORKERS, YOU ARE CALLED UPON TO MAKE THE DECISION ON THE UNITED FRONT FOR YOURSELVES! THE QUESTION IS CRYSTAL CLEAR: WILL YOU ALLOW YOUR “LEADERS” TO REPUDIATE YOUR SINCERE DESIRE TO STRUGGLE AGAINST CORRUPT CAPITALISM—OR WILL YOU REPUDIATE YOUR BANKRUPT “LEADERSHIP” AND JOIN WITH US IN A UNITED FRONT SUCH AS WILL DEFEAT THE ATTACKS OF THE MERRIAM REGIME?

Locals and Branches of the Socialist Party! Ignore the betrayal decision of your “leaders”! Join with units and sections of the Communist Party in defense of your interests, of the interests of our class!

The working class demands action—not polite gestures of lip-service to the class struggle!

Demand the Removal of Davis!

Paul Davis, San Francisco’s Relief Administrator, was recently forced to back down on his threats to eliminate from the relief rolls all militant workers—but now again, spurred on by the Hearst press, he is moving for the wholesale discharge of class conscious workers!

Hearst is making Mr. Davis stick to his bargain: if Davis was on Communists, the agreement is that the sly Hearst press will back Davis politically and help whitewash his office.

THE VICTIMS OF THIS HEARST-DAVIS ALLIANCE ARE THE SCORES OF THOUSANDS OF WORKERS DEPENDENT ON RELIEF PROJECTS IN SAN FRANCISCO COUNTY! THIS DRIVE AGAINST MILITANT WORKERS IS THE FIRST STEP TOWARD A GENERAL LOWERING OF RELIEF STANDARDS! DAVIS MUST NOT BE ALLOWED TO GO THROUGH WITH HIS PROGRAM OF INTIMIDATION! HE MUST BE REMOVED FROM HIS POST!

Workers on relief projects—workers in trade unions and other organizations—pass resolutions denouncing Davis’ campaign of victimizing relief workers whose only crime is devotion to the interests of their class, and DEMAND THE REMOVAL OF DAVIS!

Send copies of these resolutions to State Relief Administrator McLaughlin and Federal Administrator Hopkins at Washington, D. C.

The united protest of all relief workers—supported by trade unions and workers’ mass organizations, can defeat the Davis-Hearst open-shop program on the relief projects!

BRING THIS MATTER UP IN YOUR ORGANIZATIONS THIS WEEK! ACT NOW!

LET DAVIS FEEL THE POWER OF THE ORGANIZED WORKING CLASS BEFORE ANY MORE WORKERS ARE VICTIMIZED!

Demand Union Wages On Relief Jobs!

As usual, William Randolph Hearst is again leading the attack against any measure which threatens the bloated profits of the capitalist class. In a front page editorial in his morning papers of February 25, he denounces Senator McCarran, who introduced the “prevailing wage” provision in the President’s relief bill, passed by the Senate last week by a margin of one vote.

Hearst speaks of a “nation-wide storm of indignation” aroused by the McCarran amendment. Of course, the employers are indignant, for this would hamper their wage-cutting program—but it was a “nation-wide storm of indignation” from organized labor that forced these senators to vote for the prevailing rate amendment!

The Senators were not sentimentally touched by the thought of paying relief workers starvation-wages—they were frightened by the thought of a wave of strikes from one end of the country to another! Already, 1500 building trades workers are on strike in Toledo against slave wages on the F. E. R. A. projects!

Now is the time for relief workers, backed by organized labor in the trade unions, to bring pressure to bear on Congress and the Federal Administration!

THE DEMAND SHOULD BE, NOT FOR THE PREVAILING RATE OF PAY ON F. E. R. A. JOBS, BUT FOR UNION WAGES!

THIS DEMAND, IN THE FORM OF THOUSANDS OF RESOLUTIONS, SHOULD FLOOD THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, WITH COPIES TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND RELIEF ADMINISTRATOR HOPKINS! MASS PRESSURE WILL DO THE JOB!

In California—the building of a Mass Convention for Unemployment Insurance, to be held in Sacramento March 10 and 11, will be a blow against the starvation plans of Messrs. Roosevelt and Hopkins!

Support the Unemployed-Mass Convention! On to Sacramento March 10 and 11!

Fake Photos for Lying Stories

The Ukraine, once the granary of the Russians and now Soviet land of those doomed to dictatorial starvation. Mr. Walker, whose accompanying article is one of a series exposing how the Communist regime is deliberately starving its own, risked his life to make these revelations from prohibited territory. Here is what remained of a pretty 22 year old girl, found lying in a field near Poltava by Walker. Her head was wrapped in black cloth, covered by a quilt. In her fingers, rubbed raw, were pieces of roots which she had used for food.

Trying to cause an anti-Soviet hatred in America Hearst has been keeping in a steady barrage of lies. In the S. F. Call-Bulletin, from which the above is taken, is now running a series of the most atrocious lies about starvation in the Ukraine (where actually there was a fair crop and every one has plenty of food). This series is illustrated by photos allegedly taken by “Mr. Walker” and smuggled out. In reality these are old photos, taken of famine during the ‘20’s, then and taken out of the files where they have lain 20 years, and are retouched again. The above, supposedly a corpse, is actually a girl a day. The left arm having been painted in a surgical position to make it seem a corpse. But the “artist” didn’t know his anatomy and painted the arm completely unconnected with the body.

TWO MOTHERS

A SHORT STORY

One had to climb two flights of groaning, broken stairs, and feel one’s way on a banister that shook like a loose tooth, up a third flight, that rose almost vertically and disappeared into the darkness, to reach Anna Joseph’s flat. But these unfriendly preliminaries were immediately swept away when you opened the door of her home. Her kindly smile wiped the worries of the local problems of the movement from one’s mind. She and five of her seven children lived in a four room, sloping-ceilinged flat. For years she had kept the revolutionary flame of the movement burning in that small, mid-western university city; most of the time, she was the only spark. Organizers came and left, as activities proved fruitless, but Anna Joseph never lost her spirit or cheerfulness. She greeted each newcomer with the same warmth and comradeship. But in these days of the depression, the revolutionary movement came to stay.

Anna Joseph’s husband had left her shortly after her eighth child was born. The revolutionary activities of his wife did not seem to agree with him. The burden of caring for and supporting the children fell entirely upon her shoulders. Two of her children were married and lived away from home. But, in spite of her interminable worry and misery, she found time for local activities in the worker’s movement, which she did cheerfully, uncompromisingly.

Another load was suddenly thrust upon Anna’s already overburdened shoulders. The new, local party organizer, Howard Jensen, had contracted pneumonia. Because of youthful zeal, he had greatly overtaxed his energies. He was tormented from a hunger march with a burning fever. Anna—no one knew how!—it was as if she had found room for Jensen in her home. She nursed him as her own, and stayed up night after night to save this youthful revolutionary whose mother had not yet heard of her son’s illness.

When the days of delirium ended, and Jensen began to recuperate, Anna wrote to his mother who lived in a small town of a neighboring state.

Mrs. Jensen, a secretary of a local church, a determined woman, and a hard worker whose deceased husband had been a hard working minister, trembled with dread when she had first heard of my daughter’s illness. She was indirectly—that her son had become a Communist. She implored and begged Howard to stop his activities. But she knew deep down in her heart that Howard would not listen to her “sentimentalities”; that he never took anything up unless he studied, learned and understood it thoroughly. Her emotional entreaties never touched his logical mind. This brilliant son of hers had entered a university at sixteen and left it at nineteen to join the Communist movement.

And now this letter from this unknown mother who had nursed her son, her Howard, back to health. She didn’t care her son’s activities for making him ill. She became resolved. How was she to win back her boy, Howard, who was drifting farther and farther away from her. Children were compelled to obey parents these days. Her remaining child, a boy of fourteen, did not solace her grief. She loved both children equally as much, and, if anything, favored her brilliant, untutored “Howard.” She would go to her son immediately. She said as much in a return letter.

A cold, angry wind shook the windows of Anna’s home on the day Mrs. Jensen was expected. The bitter cheerlessness of the wintry day swept benignly through the poorly heated rooms. Howard was sitting up in bed. Anna was sitting on a chair tending to him. Howard had previously spoken at length about his petty-bourgeois notions and her small town ways. He didn’t know what she was going to say or do. Although he would never admit it, inwardly he was worried. And Anna Joseph who was the source for answers of local problems, who had helped comrades in trouble, who found ways of clothing and feeding the young comrades who passed through the city, who gave practical advice for a thousand and one things, was completely flummoxed. She, who had come from that famous Russian, revolutionary town of Kaptan and who had done illegal work in Russia when she was a young girl, and had passed through the 1905 Revolution and many pogroms, and had carried the spark of the Revolution across thousands of miles of land, sea and more, had to a small city in this country, wondered about a petty, bourgeois mother from a small town.

“Would Mrs. Jensen demand that her son return home? After all, she was helping to support him. One wasn’t dealing with an enemy of the working class who was indirectly—that her son had benewcomer into the Party. There they sat, the two revolutionists, young, embryonic, untutored theory, and mid-aged, battle-scarred practice, when they heard uncertain steps upon the anteroom stairs. With an anxious smile on her face, Anna went to the door and opened it.

Both mothers were surprised. One had expected a wild haired wild eyed bolshevik—whatever that was—that the papers screamed and raved about; and saw instead a short, heavy set, brown eyed, still black haired, care-worn face of a smiling woman who greeted her with a pleasant, foreign accented voice. And the other had expected a stern lipped, sharp, grey eyed, word biting still goodlooking, somewhat grey-haired, business-faced mother. Their greetings were short and nervous. But the fear that had clutched their hearts had melted away by the unexpected warm greeting.

“How is my Howard?” asked Mrs. Jensen, anxiously.

“He is fine. I had a hard time sleeping here in bed,” was Anna’s cheerful reply.

“Oh, he mustn’t get up yet.”

They entered Howard’s room. “Here he is!”

They greeted each other almost normally. Her heart beat laboriously, painfully as she stared at his bald, smooth checked face. He looked at her with expectant curiosity. She wanted to hug and kiss him, but instead, she sat down to ease her pounding heart. They spoke guardedly in short words. Both knew that sooner or later they had to broach the problem that was the cause of this visit. They approached it and drew back as one testing an unknown, frozen lake. Finally she ventured a question.

“Do you want to go home?”

Howard had never dreamt of such an uncompromising request from his mother. Had she changed? He thought hard for a minute. In spite of his surface hardness, he had a feeling of love for his hard working mother; a feeling he carefully guarded. What did she mean? And then to her:

“No, mother. Communism isn’t a playing with me. It is something bigger than you and I. bigger than a whole nation. It is the only science that gives you a clear picture of what is going on in society and in the world.”

She hesitated, and tried to quiet her trembling fingers.

“All right, Howard. You know your own mind.”

Clay Naff In Jail As Transcript In Appeal Is Filed

PHOENIX, Arizona, Feb. 21.—Transcripts in the Supreme Court appeal of Clay Naff, militant worker and class war prisoner now at the Arizona State Prison, were filed this week by the Superior Court reporter. The transcript contains 1,427 pages of testimony and is the largest ever prepared in the history of Maricopa County’s criminal procedure.

The appeal in Naff’s case was filed at the time of sentence in Superior Court by Defense Counsel Thomas J. Creffitt, former president of the Arizona State Federation of Labor. Naff was denied bond pending the outcome of his appeal and now is serving a maximum sentence of two years.

During the past several years Naff, has actively participated in the struggles of the unemployed and agricultural workers of Arizona, mainly in the Salt River Valley area.

The International Labor Defense calls on all workers and liberal organizations to rush protests to Governor H. B. Sawyer, Attorney General Sullivan and to Justice Ross of the Arizona Supreme Court, all in Phoenix, demanding Naff’s release on bail, pending appeal.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Twenty representatives of many professions, at the call of the National Committee for the Defense of Political Prisoners, have today dispatched protests against the one-sided conduct of the criminal syndicalism trials now taking place in Sacramento, California.

The protest was signed by James T. Farrell, Chicago novelist; Louis Lozowick, New York artist; Alouso Hauser, Wisconsin sculptor; Walter Lowenfels, poet; Winifred L. Chappell of the Methodist Federation for Social Service; John Howard Lawson, playwright; Edward Dahlberg, novelist; Herbert Kline, editor of New Theatre, and Emanuel Eisenberg, writer, and others.

LETTUCE WORKER

By Robert J. Pearsall.

Blood! Blood in the Lettuce fields!
All sticky red are the tender green leaves,
And the gizzard beneath is fertilized with blood.
Monstrous is the crop that shall be harvested from this soil,
And another crop that is harvested shall be glorious.

In your filthy prisons you have penned our old leaders.
Fools! Do you think we can produce no other leaders?
Do you think we are as sterile as your own stock?
Do you think starvation can defeat the elemental purpose
Of the broad hips and fertile bosoms of the working class?

Fools! We are life itself.
Starvation but nerves us, and we take the steel of your bullets—
Even into our bodies we take it and it strengthens us;
And we come back ten-fold, a hundred-fold,
And our blood shed on the lettuce goes into ten thousand homes.
And those that eat shall know that they eat of our blood,
And eating, they shall learn of our blessing and our curse.

Our blessing that they are workers, if they are workers,
Our blessing that they are of us, and we take the steel of your bullets—
Our blessing that they will one day stand side by side with us;
Our curse upon the bloody food that goes into their mouths,
Our curse upon Imperial Valley until workers own the soil,
Our curse fused by bosses’ bullets into iron resolve!

MUNITIONS, MONOPOLY, IMPERIALISM AND WAR

By BILL DUNNE

Important as was the part of the working class—deceived and deluded by their official leaders of the American Federation of Labor and the Socialist Party—in 1918 in producing the war materials (and fighting the war), it is still more important today because of the great technical advances made since the World War. It follows that the chances of the working class and its allies preventing or defeating imperialist war are better today than they were at that time. The whole question is one of consciousness, determination and organization.

Furthermore, the international situation today is much different than in 1918. The worst crisis in the history of American and world capitalism has disillusioned millions of the working class who were formerly supporters of the wars of their rulers or indifferent to them. Millions of American workers know now their interest is in fighting for the right to work and live instead of fighting and supporting the predatory wars of Morgan, Rockefeller, Mellon and the rest of little clique of multimillionaires who rule and fob the working population.

American workers and the workers of the world have now a powerful ally in the working class movement of the Soviet Union. Her unwavering stand against imperialist war has been a tremendous force in postponing the outbreak of the new world war in a period when crimson war clouds hang low over the entire globe.

The fight against imperialist war is also a fight of the Soviet Union, the fortress and fatherland of the world’s working class.

Monopoly capitalism, beset and terrified by the crisis, which it created, alarmed by the growing organization and understanding of the exploited population, brings forth the hideous frat fascist. The struggle against imperialist war is a fight against fascism—the weapon of capitalism in decay against the working class.

The gigantic quantities of all kinds of natural resources and finished products needed to carry on successful modern warfare—making all industries part of the war machine—place in the hands of the working class the power to cripple and paralyze this war machine. But if the working class waits for imperialist war to take on an open military character before it organizes and acts, it will exact a terrible toll from working class ranks before the war makers and their system are overthrown. The time to fight imperialist war is all the time.

It has been shown on the basis of adequate requirements for the military forces in 1917-18-19 that millions of workers were needed to produce and transport them. American workers could have stopped the imperialist slaughter in 1917. They did not do so and the working class of the entire world paid the most horrible penalty in all history.

Emergency Appeal For Help Made By C. S. Defendants

WITNESSES NEEDED

Your comrades are in trouble. Seventeen working class organizers are facing trial in which California courts are trying to railroad them to the penitentiary. Only you can save them.

WE NEED:

Workers who have been employed by the ranch of W. H. Carpenter at Oakley, Calif., or the ranch of Frank M. Peterson at Earlmar, Calif. Workers who participated in the great cotton strike of 1933 and particularly those who witnessed the killing of workers by vigilantes around Pixley, Calif., on Oct. 10, 1933, and around that date. Workers who were herded into stockades and driven out of the County by vigilantes and deputies in Contra Costa County last year, particularly around Martinez. Workers who lived on ranches during the past five years. We must show the real reason for these strikes.

Has anyone useful information about the stool pigeons: Robert M. Hicks, William L. Harv, William Malin Hanks, Louis Heiminger, and Melville Harris?

Do you know anyone who has information he can testify to?

Notify: THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR DEFENSE, ROOM 410, 1005 Market St., San Francisco, or your nearest I. L. D. Branch.
