

THE RED GUARDS WANT TO BE PROMOTERS OF WORLD REVOLUTION

Following is a translation of an editorial by the editorial departments of the Chinese-language newspaper, Tung-fang-hung--Jen-ta San-hung (East Is Red--People's University Three Red), Peking, Special Edition, 1 May 67, pp 1 & 3. The newspaper is published jointly by the Peking Mining College's East Is Red and the Chinese People's University Three Red.]

During the climax of the world-shaking Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution and the spring of every victory of Chairman Mao's revolutionary line, our revolutionary Red Guards, with boundless joy and happiness, join the proletarian revolutionary groups of whole China and the whole world to celebrate our own festive day--- "May 1" International Labor Day!

"May 1" International Labor Day is the day for the penniless proletarians to uprising and rebel, for the "suffering people of the whole world" to get up to seek liberation, and for the proletariat and working people to rally their own ranks to carry out the grand alliance of the revolution.

Chairman Mao, the great teacher of the world's revolutionary people has taught us: "With the social development's arrival at the present age, the duty of correct recognition of the world and remolding the world has historically fallen on the shoulders of the proletariat and its political party. This practical procedure of remolding the world which was defined in accordance with scientific recognition has reached a historical stage in the world and China----an important stage which had never appeared before in the history, that is, to eradicate in whole the dark sides of the world and China and turn them into an unprecedented bright world."

In China, Asia, Africa, Latin America and every corner of the world today, the great Mao Tse-tung thought has become a powerful weapon of thought to destroy the old world and to create a new world. "When the four seas are churning, the cloud and water are also fuming; when the five continents are stirring, the wind and thunder are also emerging." The palace of devilish imperialists, revisionists and reactionary was shaken and toppled down by the revolutionary people's singing of victorious songs; a new world with Mao Tse-tung's thought is forming!

In observing the glorious "May 1" Day today, we should remember the Fatherland, look at the world, hold aloft the huge banner of international proletarian revolution, stand beside the revolutionary people of the world, and plunge actively into the great revolution of burying thoroughly imperialism, revisionism and the reactionary of various countries so that the sun rays of Mao Tse-tung's thought may shine upon the whole earth!

In observing the glorious "May 1" Day, we should hold aloft the huge revolutionary banner of criticism and repudiation, destroy thoroughly the Liu-Teng reactionary line, bury thoroughly the Liu-Teng reactionary dynasty, and struggle against Liu Shao-ch'i until he is down, collapsed, and rotted! Let the revolutionary storm of the Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution becomes even more turbulent!

"The world is yours and also ours, but in the end it will be yours. You young people are full of vigor and in the prime of life, like the sun at eight or nine o'clock in the morning. The hope is entrusted to you."

We, the red guards of Chairman Mao whose growth was nurtured by the sun rays and dews of Mao Tse-tung thought, should forever study Chairman Mao's writings, heed to Chairman Mao's words, follow Chairman Mao's directives to do things and vow to use the Mao Tse-tung thought to remold the whole world! Be the promoters of China's revolution and the world's revolution, and establish definitely the great ambition of dedicating the whole life to struggle for a thorough victory of communism in the whole world.

We, Chairman Mao's red guards whose growth was nurtured by the sun rays and dews of Mao Tse-tung's thought, remember always the class struggle and the proletarian dictatorship. We realize the laboring people are our fathers and mothers. The laboring people of the whole world used their hard work, their one after another heroic struggle and their blood and sweat to raise our generation. The revolutionary red guards pledge to be the loyal sons and daughters of the laboring people forever and will never forget them! In the current Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution, we are determined to go deeply to the workers and peasants, to learn from them, to take the path of integrating with them, to temper ourselves in the strong wind and waves to be common laborers who will serve the people whole-heartedly, and to temper ourselves to become the reliable successors who will adhere unswervingly to the proletarian causes. Only then will we be able to become forever the promoters of China's revolution and the world's revolution. Only then will our generation be able to unchange its color. As long as Red China does not change its color, the tide of world revolution will continue to move forward regardless of whatever changes develop in the world!

As early as 1848, Marx, the revolutionary teacher of the proletarian class had called upon the proletarian class of the whole world: "Unite, proletarians of the whole world!" The greatest contemporary Marxist-Leninist, our great leader, Chairman Mao had called on the revolutionary people to implement "the grand alliance of people" at the time he began to carry out the great revolutionary practice and to remold China. Chairman Mao has repeatedly taught the young warriors of the red guards during the unprecedented Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution "to carry out Marx teaching that the final liberation of the proletarian class itself can be attained only after the liberation of whole mankind." The respected and beloved Deputy Supreme Commander Lin Piao also warned us: "Proletariat's victory over the enemy depends on unity." It is the basic experience and bloodshed lesson learned by the international communist movement in more than one hundred years. It is therefore a matter of immediate importance for our Chairman Mao's red guards to join forces with the proletarian revolutionary groups of the whole country.

All our revolutionary red guards should be the thoroughly revolutionary groups of the far-sighted proletarian internationalism. We should not only unite all those who are close by and could be united but also all revolutionary people in the world. Otherwise, the slogan of remolding the whole world will become empty words!

Chairman Mao taught us that the remolding of our subjective world should be carried out at the time of remolding the objective world. In order to implement the grand alliance of the proletarian revolutionary groups and the triple alliance of the revolution at present, we must rebel against anarchism vigorously.

Anarchism puts liberation of individuals above the liberation of whole mankind. It wants indulgence for the individuals but no revolutionary authority and discipline; it concerns only with the small cliques of individuals but not the whole matter of the revolution. It is the major enemy of the revolutionary grand alliance, and must be overthrown resolutely! All those thinking of "selfishness" first, continuously engaging in show-offism and individualism, and the mistakes of showing no interest and sincerity to the grand alliance of the revolution must be wiped out. At the present moment of the decisive battle of great criticism and repudiation and the great struggle, it is the glorious task of each and every fighter of our red guards to take away with vigor the power of "selfishness" in one's own mind and to eradicate with full strength anarchism and individualism.

The great revolutionary teacher Lenin said: "Revolution is a great day for the oppressed and exploited ones."

Comrades-at-arms of the Proletarian revolutionary groups and comrades of the Red Guards! Let us get together to vow solemnly to the Supreme Commander, Chairman Mao while we are using the brilliant fighting achievements of the Cultural Revolution to celebrate the glorious "May 1" Day: The young people of our generation will certainly use their own hands to build our poor and blank Fatherland into a great and strong socialist country, will certainly bury imperialism, capitalism and all exploiting systems of the whole world so that the heaven of the world becomes the heaven of Mao Tse-tung's thought and the earth of the world becomes the earth of Mao Tse-tung's earth! We must devote our whole life to struggle for the accomplishment of this great historical mission and to be the forever promoters of China's revolution and the world's revolution!

5609

CSO: 3577-D